Workshop description

Business Upper Austria and Ministry of education, science and sport Slovenia invite you to the workshop „Biopackaging – Let's create future together“, in the name of the partners of DanuBioValNet project. The workshop will bring together interested companies (SMEs), clusters managers from the Danube region, business support organisations and experts from academia.

The objective is to facilitate cross-border and cross-regional cooperation of clusters and SMEs for creation of a bio-based packaging value chain. The workshop will help to create interesting project ideas/initiatives and a macro regional network.

By the end of the event you will have:

- Presented your company and exchanged expertise
- Established contacts with leading actors of the biopackaging industry
- Identified new business opportunities and found partners for your future project
- Become part of new bio-based innovative ideas

Please find the agenda and link for registration above.
